Yours to discover.

The Danville Science Center creates an immersive, fun, innovative atmosphere where everyone can experience how science affects your world and your future.

Become a member of the Science Center to unlock a year of discovery. Plunge to the depths of the ocean, explore what makes things go, journey through the stars, experience seasonal beauty, generate ideas, and harness your creativity with exhibits and experiences designed to pull back the curtain on our world. We even have an exhibit to help the earliest explorers discover STEM fundamentals through play.

No matter your age, background or experience with STEM, the Science Center is all yours. Yours to experience. Yours to discover.
