Summer Science Camps 2023

OUR CAMPS FILL UP FAST, SO REGISTER EARLY!

Ages 4 – 7

Camp fee: $60 Member; $70 Non-Member

Just Add Water

June 13 – 16, 1:30 – 4 p.m.

Get your hands wet while exploring the importance of water to life on Earth. Create a working model of the water cycle, discover how different substances react to it, and harness the power of water in fun activities and games. Campers are sure to make a splash!

Kitchen Science

June 27 – 30, 9:30 a.m. – 12 p.m.

It's time to cook up some experiments with items found in a kitchen! What happens when you combine certain ingredients? Do they change? Uncover the science behind these reactions and get innovative as you think about how we can use everyday items in a different way.

Ages 8 – 12

Camp Fee: $60 Member; $70 Non-Member

Watershed Warriors

June 20 – 23, 1:30 – 4 p.m.

Become a defender of the deep! Discover the fascinating life found in and on the mighty Dan River. Explore the depths of this local watershed using an underwater drone. From resource to recreation, learn how to play with and protect this wonderful world of wetness through creative fun and team-building activities.

Game On

July 11 – 14, 9:30 a.m. – 12 p.m.

Create the art, animations, backgrounds and storytelling necessary to design your very own custom video game. Each day's activities will build on the next until, by the last day, you have created something uniquely yours.
